Ad Writing Tips

1. USE A KEY WORD

Use a key word that's easy for the reader to understand. The key word should immediately tell the reader exactly what you have to sell.

2. MAKE YOUR DESCRIPTION CLEAR AND FACTUAL

State the year, make, model, size, color and tell the reader what condition the item is in. List the special features.

3. GIVE THE PRICE

A reader doesn't want to call to find out an item is too much for his or her budget. You'll avoid wasted calls and those who do call will have already determined they can afford your item.

4. TELL READERS WHEN YOU CAN BE REACHED BY PHONE

Make sure you're available during the hours you specify. Some people will not call back after a failed first attempt.

Agency Rate

Credit

Advertising must be paid in advance unless credit has been approved by the Daily Courier Classified Ad Dept. Bills are mailed after ads expire on a monthly statement. Payment in full is due upon receipt of the statement. Accounts with balances 30 days or more past due may have credit discontinued. Inquiries regarding a classified bill should be made immediately upon receipt by calling (541) 474-3714.

General Policies

A.) Advertising is accepted with the understanding that the terms, conditions, and charges specified herein are acceptable to the advertiser, and that no contrary oral or written agreement shall be binding on publisher.

B.) The publisher assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors, omission of copy, omission of the total ad or incorrect classification. Liability for errors or omissions shall not exceed the cost to the advertiser(s) of the portion of space occupied by such error. Claims for adjustment of the cost of the ad must be made within 10 days of publication. Credit is allowed for first insertion only.

C.) Advertiser will be held liable for damages or any court judgment for invasion of privacy, libel, copyright violation of trademark or patent infringement contained in any advertisement which appears in the Daily Courier, or any of its sections, Country Weekly, or WeeksWorth on advertiser's behalf. Advertiser's liability shall include newspaper's defense costs should any legal action be brought as a result of any such action resulting from a published advertisement.

D.) Publisher reserves the right to edit or reject advertising copy or cancel any advertisement. All advertising is accepted subject to approval of publisher and must conform to the general standards of advertising acceptance.

E.) Position requests will be given every consideration but are not guaranteed. An advertiser's request for position is not a condition of acceptance nor basis for an adjustment.

F.) Publisher reserves the right to amend the terms, conditions, rates, etc., specified in contracts upon 30 days notice, and if revision is not acceptable to the advertiser, the advertiser has the right to terminate contracts upon date of change without penalty.

G.) Acceptance for publication is contingent upon space being available and whether or not advertising is received by deadline. Advertising copy is not considered in on time unless all components are received by deadline.

H.) No advertising space will be sold by the newspaper(s) for the purpose of resale.

I.) Political advertising, advertising on public policy questions and controversial issues will be prepaid. Those ads must carry the name and address of person(s) or organization(s) responsible for the advertisement.

J.) Incorrect rates on insertion orders which do not correspond to the rate card will be regarded as clerical errors and advertisements will be published and charged at the applicable rate.

K.) No advertising will be deemed to have been accepted by the publisher until it has in fact been published.
